DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 1-6, 8-16, 18 and 19 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in the reply filed on 13 August 2007.

2. Applicant's election with traverse of group II, species 2b in the reply filed on 13 August 2007 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that there is no lack of unity in accordance with PCT restriction practice. This is not found persuasive because at the least the species defined by claims dependent on generic claim 7 do not share the same technological features. For example, claim 16 limits the connecting structure to claws, while claim 17 limits the connecting structure to magnets. There is no disclosure of a connecting structure of claws and magnets. The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL. Note that on allowance of a generic or linking claim, all the claims dependent from that claim will be examined. It is strongly suggested that applicant not file any divisional applications until such determination of patentability can be made.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claim 17 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. It appears from the specification that it is the polishing body 815 that is connected to the second body holding unit by magnets, and not the second carrier connected to the first carrier as claimed. See the specification, page 17. There is no support for the first and second holding units to be connected by magnets.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Sato et al, 6,312,320. Please refer to figures 3- 7, and their descriptions.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

9. Claim 17 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sato et al, 6,312,320 in view of Senga et al, 6,520,895. '320 does not disclose that the second holding unit is magnetically connected to the first holding unit. It is the examiner's position that the use of magnets to provide a temporary connection between two bodies is old and well known, as taught by '895, column 4, lines 55 through column 5, lines 14. As both the references teach apparatus for providing a connection between two bodies (see '320, figure 3, for example screw 24 holding 55 to carrier 35a), it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to substitute one connecting device for the other to achieve the predictable result of providing a connection between two bodies that is easily disconnected.

Conclusion

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Other similar devices are cited of interest.
